I submitted an abstract but need to make a change. How do I do this?

- Before the submission deadline: You can make changes to your own submitted abstract until the submission deadline.
- Access the Abstract Submission Website, scroll down to your completed submissions, and click on the submission title you want to edit. Make the desired changes and be sure to re-submit before the deadline.
- After the submission deadline: While we realize some changes are inevitable, we urge you to work with your potential speakers and participants to confirm their availability and presentation information prior to submission. After the deadline, use the Change Tracker Request link to alert PAS staff to changes. This link is live after the submission window closes.

Will there be late-breaking abstracts this year?

- There are no late-breaking abstract submissions for 2022.

Are Case Studies accepted?

- Historically, abstracts accepted for presentation are hypothesis-driven new work. Abstracts rarely accepted for presentation include single case reports, open-label drug trials, highly speculative accounts of clinical experience, and op-ed accounts of personal experience. Interim results from an ongoing clinical trial will not be accepted for presentation unless the study has been prematurely closed for lack of efficacy or for safety issues.

What is the word or character count for submitted abstracts?

- Total character count is 2,600 and includes spaces. Tables and images are not included in the character count.

Can abstracts be presented at the PAS Meeting if they are accepted into other meetings as well?

- Abstracts submitted and/or presented at other Societies' or national meetings within the 12 months prior to the PAS Meeting may be submitted to the PAS Meeting for consideration. Please refer to the PAS Academic Ethics Policy.

Can I resubmit my abstract from PAS 2021?

- Abstracts can be updated and resubmitted if they haven't been published in manuscript form. Acknowledgment of previous presentations at a conference should be indicated during submission.

Can individuals submit more than one abstract?

- There is no limit on the number of abstracts submitted by each author, but the submission of multiple, redundant, or highly similar abstracts with only minimal changes in the abstract title or minor changes in data analysis from the same investigator(s) or laboratory is strongly discouraged. Such submissions may result in rejection of all abstracts that are deemed to be in violation of PAS guidelines; rejection may occur prior to, during, or after review, even if submitted to different topical categories. Please refer to the PAS Academic Ethics Policy.

How do I indicate my Abstract Session is suitable for a Highlighted Theme?

- PAS 2022 Lab: Highlighted Themes. As a pilot test of broad themes of interest across academic pediatrics, PAS especially welcomes submissions related to our Highlighted Themes. We also encourage creativity as you build your session agendas. A 90-minute session agenda for a submission related to a Highlighted Theme may, for example, feature short presentations, followed by a pro/con debate, followed by time for small group discussion among session participants. When you submit, you will have the opportunity to indicate if your submission aligns with a PAS 2022 Highlighted Theme:
  - Effects of Climate Change on Child Health
  - Racism in Research and Medical Care
  - Managing the Pediatric Mental Health Crisis

How do I invite Co-Authors to complete Author Information and COI?

- Click “Invite” to send an automatic email directing co-authors to complete their tasks. This invitation includes ALL required tasks they need to complete.
- Each co-author must complete their Author Information and COI before the submission may be completed.
- For extra assurance, please notify participants you have added them to the system and that they need to complete the required information. They should locate the email sent from info@pas-meeting.org with the subject: Important: You Have Outstanding Tasks for a PAS Abstract Submission”. If participants do not receive the email, please ask them to check the junk/spam section of their inbox.
- The system allows you to invite them to complete their required tasks as many times as you choose by clicking the “Invite” button.

Why do all authors need to complete disclosures?

- All individuals in a position to control the content of a Continuing Education (CE) activity (planners, chairs, presenters, authors, reviewers, etc.) must disclose all financial relationships with ineligible companies they have had in the past 24 months to the CE provider using the Conflict of Interest (COI) Disclosure Form. Individuals who fail or refuse to provide this information will be disqualified from involvement in the planning and implementing of this activity.
- Due to recent updates to the ACCME Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education (opens new window), for those submitting for any CME accredited sessions, disclosures completed by each co-author must accompany the submission. Sessions with incomplete or missing disclosures will not be able to be submitted. The submitter is responsible for ensuring that each co-author is aware of and has complied with the disclosure requirement before submission.
