

PEDIATRIC ACADEMIC SOCIETIES (PAS)

PAS INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to specify the guidelines adopted by PAS regarding the use of PAS intellectual property. For purposes of this policy, “Member Organizations” are defined as the following: American Academy of Pediatrics, Academic Pediatric Association, American Pediatric Society, and Society for Pediatric Research. “PAS Directors” are those individuals appointed by a Member Organization to the PAS Board of Directors (“PAS Board”).

Nothing in this policy is intended to restrict the use of Intellectual Property by the persons who are the owners of the Intellectual Property, their licensees or assignees. These owners may use their Intellectual Property or licensee or assign other uses as they deem appropriate, including reproduction, adaptation, publication, performance and display, without any prior approval or notice to the PAS.

Through events and other means PAS provides valuable information and educational materials for stakeholders in the pediatric healthcare profession. This information and educational material includes program guides, submissions, sessions materials, presentations, recordings, data, photographs, displays, signage and images (collectively “Intellectual Property”) which may be owned by PAS, speakers, licensors, or other providers. This Intellectual Property is protected by the United States and international copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, and other intellectual property or proprietary rights laws.

The owners of this Intellectual Property exercise full rights over its usage. The PAS Code of Conduct and PAS Terms of Use provide for guidance for conduct related to the use of Intellectual Property, including social media activity and conduct during PAS sessions. Agreement to these stipulations is required of all participants in PAS events. These stipulations permit and encourage the open exchange of ideas and information that is essential to the advancement of scholarship and research core to the PAS vision.

The above notwithstanding, unless PAS Directors, staff, committee members, reviewers, moderators, presenters, volunteers, event participants, supporting staff and other stakeholders are the Intellectual Property owners, individuals may not:

- Reproduce, distribute, modify, or create derivative works of the Intellectual Property
- Publicly display, publicly perform, republish, download, store, or transmit any Intellectual Property
- Use any illustrations, photographs, video or audio sequences or any graphics separately from the accompanying text in the Intellectual Property
- Delete or alter any copyright, trademark, or other proprietary rights notices from copies of materials from the Intellectual Property

Any proposed use of Intellectual Property by persons other than the owner of the Intellectual Property, their licensees or assignees must be pre-approved by PAS in writing. Requests should be sent by email to info@pasmeeting.org to the attention of the PAS Executive Director.
